

Environmental management - integral part of sustainable development concept

Asist. drd. ing. Mădălina Albu, Universitatea Petrol-Gaze din Ploiești, E-mail: amm_ro@yahoo.it

Abstract:

Management system of environment is a component of general management system which includes organization structure, planning activity, responsibilities, the practices, procedures, processes and the resources for elaborating, implementing, realization, analysis and actualization of environmental politics. This paper presented details of the integrative-ecologic management plans used in oil industry.

Key words: environmental management, sustainable development

JEL Code: P28, Q01